Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

I have been an Austin resident since 1996 and have seen the city undergo tremendous growth as well as growing pains. I strongly advocate change via our privilege to vote. I try to exercise this privilege at every election, and take my daughter with me to teach her its importance.

My job requires me to take many pieces of data and use it to obtain the optimal outcome for my clients. The information may come from questioning the client or from various test reports. I am required to analyze these facts quickly and accurately many times daily.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

Impartiality requires an individual to assess the problem at hand and render an opinion or recommendation for the good of society, but without allowing his or her own gain or personal feelings to interfere. I am shaped by my upbringing, my educational opportunities, and by my faith. I grew up very poor and was raised by my grandparents for much of my childhood. I saw education as a way to open doors for me, and eventually went to college on the west coast, continued my training in Houston, and finished on the east coast. Therefore I have experienced the ways that different areas of the country work and govern themselves. My core values are strong via my faith and because of this, I can be nonjudgmental. My education and experience living in different socioeconomic groups give me a fair outlook on today's problems.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

I have lived in the Rio Grande Valley, California, Houston, and North Carolina. The opportunity to live in such different places has given me an appreciation for the cultural diversity that Austin offers. I try to take advantage of this as much as possible. I have taken my daughter to the Austin PowWow for the last three years to show her our Native American heritage. I have attended the Martin Luther King Day parade. I support Roy Lozano Ballet Folklorico, a company that performs Mexican folk dance, and attend their shows. I ran in the Capitol 10K last year and early on when I first arrived in Austin. I have been privileged to attend Bass Concert Hall various times, and most recently my daughter and I enjoyed the musical Mary Poppins. The Long Center is a must around Christmas as my daughter has been an angel in The Nutcracker.

Austin is also blessed with geographical diversity. The hills, lakes and trees here make it a wonderful place to live. My family and I love to hike in the Wild Basin Preserve and the greenbelts. I often jog on the hike and bike trail along Lady Bird Lake, and sometimes kayak there as well. Our city is truly diverse.

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.
